

Sarah Bunn

1869 - 1940

Sarah was the fifth child of Ann and James Bunn of Sandy Lane Bulmer. She was baptised on 22nd August 1869. Sarah's father was an agricultural labourer who became a shepherd. They lived in Shepherd House, Sandy Lane.

In 1891, aged 22, Sarah was living with her parents and family which now included her widowed grandmother. Sarah was a corset maker or dress maker along with her sister, Emily.

After her mother's death in 1896, Sarah continued to live with her brother Walter and sister Emily.

The 1911 census shows the three of them still living together in Armsey Cottage, Bulmer, with Walter as an agricultural labourer, presumably at Armsey Farm.

Sarah never married.

She died in 1940, having lived through the reigns of Queen Victoria, Edward VII, George V, Edward VIII and George VI.

Her gravestone here at St Andrew's reads:

In Memory of Sarah Bunn
Died 27th January 1940, aged 70
R.I.P
Also of Emily Bunn
Died 2nd July 1944, aged 72

BUNN Sarah of Front Lodge Bulmer Essex spinster died 27 January 1940 at the Vicarage Bulmer Probate London 27 February to Emily Bunn spinster. Effects £367 18s. 4d.