18/07/1903 - 20/02/1992

Florence was born in Bethnal Green, London. She lived here and worked as a seamstress.

Florence met Alfred Francis who had spent much of his youth in Henny.

They married in 1929 and lived in Fortescue Avenue, Hackney, then later in Bethnal Green.

Florence and Alfred Francis 1929

Alfred and Florence had a son, Alfred.

During 1940, presumably at the height of the blitz, they moved to Henny.

In 1962 Alfred and Florence moved to Bulmer where together they joined the Bulmer Friendship Club.

Florence died in 1992 and is buried with Alfred in the new churchyard. (Row 4. Plot 28)
